

Oakland Baptist Church Sunday School 2022-2023

So live in Christ Jesus the Lord in the same way as you received him. Be rooted and built up in him, be established in faith, and overflow with thanksgiving just as you were taught.
Colossians 2:6-7 (CEB)

Adult Sunday School

Young Adults: Conference Room
Beginning September 11! This new class is for young adults in the age range of 19-29 years. Whether you are only in town for the weekend or Rock Hill is home, join us when you can!

Teachers: Janice and Gary Bodford, Mack Bailey, Jeff Hayes, and Leigh Reynolds

Coed 4A: Room above the Gym
Our class consists of young to middle-aged adults (30s to late 40s), most with children that range from early elementary to college age. Our class provides support for one another with parenting and life situations. We try to plan regular social opportunities outside of church as well as involvement with church and community projects.

Teachers: Liz and Ryan Bridges

Coed 4B: Room 131
We welcome all ages and all seasons of life as we enjoy growing in our faith with each other. We are committed to following the vision of the church and aligning our lessons to those provided. We enjoy serving meals at Bethel, providing funds for additional ministries, and supporting one another in the ups and downs that life presents.

Teachers: Krista Hayes and Ben Lucas

Coed 3A: Room 123

We are a coed class of retired (or soon-to-be retired) singles and couples from the mid-60s to early 80s who have adult children and grandchildren. Our sessions are active give-and-take discussions where all are encouraged to share. We routinely support Family Promise, Bethel Men's Shelter, Hope and other church wide projects as well as specific needs as they occur.

Teachers: Frank Snyder and Alice Hildebrand

Coed 3B: Room 120

We are a coed class of singles and couples in their 60s and 70s, mostly retirees. We have adult children and grandchildren and support Veteran programs, Family Promise, the Ministry Center, and Bethel Men's Shelter.

Teachers: Jimmy Johnson and Tom Taylor

Coed 3C: Room 206

We are a class of retired adult couples and singles with grandchildren. We provide support for the joys and challenges of aging parents, adult children, and occasional childcare. Prayer, attention, and food for class members' medical issues is common. We are very active in OBC educational, service, and mission programs as well as community needs and initiatives. Teaching responsibilities are divided among three class members to provide variety in teaching style and perspectives while class discussion typically adds additional food for thought. We are older but still active, friendly, and always welcoming.

Teachers: John Robinette, Gary Williams, and Susan York

Coed 3E: Room 129

We are a coed class of singles and couples in our 40s and 50s with older school-age, college, and young adult children. We provide support for each other as we deal with the challenges of parenting these ages while also taking care of aging parents. We provide meals for Family Promise and Bethel Men's Shelter and provide financial support for special needs as they occur.

Teachers: Class Rotation

Coed 1: Chapel

Faithful Followers is a small class of older, retired adults with adult children and grandchildren. We have supported Family Promise, Bethel Shelter, the Ministry Center, and other churchwide projects.

Teachers: Carol Savage, Sue Smith, and Joyce Cockrell

Friendship Class: . Room 207

We are a co-ed class of older adults (primarily age 65 and up). Through care groups we provide support to one another. We make monthly contributions to the church Benevolence Fund, Back the Pack, and the ministry of Janee Angel who serves as missionary in Belgium. The class offers a telephone conference line each week for participants who are unable to attend in person.

Teachers: Eddie Ramsey, Carlton Heustess, and Richard Sealy

WHICH IS MOST IMPORTANT?

Worship or Sunday School, which is most important? Some say the worship of God is the most important element of spiritual formation for Christians. Others say the study of God is most important. So, which is it?

Before you spend too much time choosing one and crafting an argument in defense of your choice, let us propose that both are equally and vitally important in the ongoing spiritual formation of Christians. Our study of God gives passion to our worship. Similarly, our worship of God gives purpose to our study.

At Oakland we believe that spiritual formation should engage the mind and the heart in an ever-growing, life-changing formative process that reflects our desire to live as devoted followers of Christ. Believing that both our worship of God and our study of God are essential elements of spiritual formation we, pray that you will regularly be present at both.

If you have yet to join a Sunday School class, now is the time! Any of our staff would be happy to help you find a class that is right for you!
