

We are a church that values:

Relationships

Spiritual Growth in Christ

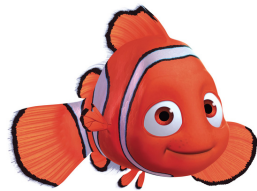

Missions

“Beep! Beep! Beep!” No doubt you’ve driven by a construction site and heard the sounds of cement trucks, jack-hammers, and other equipment as workers lay a foundation and build something incredible on top of that foundation. The foundational vision God has for Oakland has been set and now is the time to build something incredible. This summer our Implementation Teams will begin their work and by Fall a full launch of Oakland’s values, goals, and strategies of Relationships, Spiritual Growth in Christ, and Missions will take shape. Please continue to pray for our church and your place in making God’s vision a reality.

Summer Service Challenge

We challenge every Sunday School class to prepare and serve a meal at either Bethel Shelter or Life House Women's Shelter at least once during the summer. This is a simple, but extraordinarily important ministry. For more information and to pick a date for your class to serve visit our website: oaklandchurch.com/sign-me-up. If you have additional questions, contact Suzanne Ringer (sringer@oaklandchurch.com).

Bethel Shelters is the only year-round emergency shelter in the tri-county area. In addition to other necessary services, dinner is provided 7 nights a week.

Bethel Shelters

"The Life House Women's Shelter is a community collaborative that came by way of knowing the need of homeless women and knowing of a vacant home that was underutilized."
